ROLLER DERBY GAME PLAY

Pivots are blockers with stripes. They can become jammers if they receive the star.

Blockers (“The Pack”) try to stop the opposing jammer while helping their own jammer pass the other team’s blockers.

Jammers wear stars on their helmets and score points.

The Start
At the whistle skaters skate in counter-clockwise direction. The jammer who legally gets through the pack first is the “Lead Jammer”. She can call off the jam to keep the other jammer from scoring.

Scoring
Both jammers can score points after their initial pass. They earn one point for every opposing blocker they legally pass.

Legal Contact
Shoulders and hips are used to block opposing players. Skaters may not use their elbows, forearms, or head. Skaters may not block opponents below the thigh, above the shoulders, or from behind.
